

ROCKWOOL community support and involvement in Wallula, Washington

Updates

February 25, 2026

ROCKWOOL was proud to receive the Washington Economic Development Association's 2026 Economic Development Project of the Year

Business Recruitment Award in recognition of our planned Wallula facility.

Pictured (l-r) are Port of Walla Walla Governmental Affairs/Community Outreach Manager Meagan Blair, ROCKWOOL NA Public Affairs Manager Paul Espinosa, Wallula Director of Operations Jørgen Amtoft, and WEDA Awards Committee Chair Amanda Wallner.

Document last updated: March 13, 2026

February 6 to 7, 2026

ROCKWOOL was happy to support the 2026 Walla Walla Fair & Frontier Days Foundation Showcase and the Pasco-Kennewick Rotary Club 2026 Wine Valley Gala.

Document last updated: March 13, 2026

January 29, 2026

ROCKWOOL was happy to partner with Walla Walla County to install a new children's playground for the Wallula community.

May 8, 2025

ROCKWOOL sponsors Columbia School District Community BBQ

ROCKWOOL was pleased to support the Columbia School District's Community barbecue by sponsoring the WE ice truck at the May 8 event. We look forward to being an active member of the community and supporting our local schools.

Document last updated: March 13, 2026

May 1, 2025

ROCKWOOL updates Walla Walla Noon Rotary on Wallula project

ROCKWOOL was pleased to provide an update on our planned Wallula Gap Business Park facility to the Walla Walla Noon Rotary Club at their May 1 meeting. Mark Bromiley, Vice President Marketing & Business Development for ROCKWOOL North America, shared that the project is currently in the permitting phase with construction tentatively scheduled to begin in late third quarter and would continue through 4Q 2027.

